Welcome to our third newsletter for the Spring term. Below are the headlines for all our programmes and partner activities.

Ministerial Letter to all schools – was sent Friday 12th March. It was an update on the government’s reforms to teacher training and development. If you have not seen it, please click here.

Collaborative Teaching School Hub Subject Forums – letter sent out February 22nd. So far 86 schools have signed up. It's an opportunity for our teachers to further develop their practice as well as connecting them to a wider community of educators. Sign-up and more information can be found here.

Early Career Framework (ECF) Headlines:

- April Cohort – Employing a new teacher/mentor now? This cohort is run locally by the hub. Window open from 1st March to 16th May to sign up. Contact Julia French for how to do this.
- We are seeing increasing ECTs/Mentors moving schools or changing roles. Contact Julia French to ensure this is done smoothly and in a timely manner.
- Early Career Teachers Local Group Sessions. Book via the EDT online learning platform, under 'Events'. April 25th – May 16th. The sessions are a mixture of Phase and mixed groups or online.
- We are looking for new ECF facilitators ready for next year. Our existing facilitators have found it an effective way to get to know the ECF and develop their practice. Contact Julia French for more details.

National Professional Qualifications (NPQs) Headlines:

- Expressions of interest for Autumn 2022 – due to the ongoing re-procurement of lead providers for NPQs, we have been asked to stop all recruitment. Instead, we have an expression of interest form for anyone interested in hearing about when the recruitment window will reopen or would like more information. The form can be found here.
- Two new NPQs due to start in September 2022 – Leading Literacy and Early Years Leadership
- Recruiting for new NPQ facilitators and Coaches needed for September 2022. If you are interested, please contact Louise Crookshank for more details.
